Respectfully beg to submit that no separate Establishment is at all necessary, the addition of 3 peons and one bearer and the addition of such clerk to attend on the Asst to the Census Supdt during his tours would seem to be all that is required. The opening of an other District Office necessitates increase of Correspondence and maintenance of separate records and perhaps lead to duplication of work in all branches. The Census Supdt has not proved the reasons for a separate Establishment nor the circumstances that led to Dist Offices being formed in 1901 and not so now. There is a whole time Supdt without any other work but Census to attend to and there does not seem to be any necessity to have separate Offices decentralised with. As there is necessary but not their separate or independent existance. The asst is now subject to the Hd or Special Control of the Census Supdt per as the latter assistants work in Bengal

The Census Supdt's proposals may be accepted, I think. A separate asst does not necessarily mean formal correspondence with the Census Supt. The asst will have to be much as Coupe, I believe, ~~a clerk may not do be always present and~~ not always present.
